

TABLE OF CONTENTS

THE CENTRE AND THE PERIPHERY

From the Editorial Committee (Mirosława Hanusiewicz-Lavallee)	7
--	---

DISSERTATIONS

Dariusz ŚNIEŻKO, The Prose of the Polish Renaissance versus Humanistic Anthropology, or Negotiating the Position in a World Built Anew	9
Arent VAN NIEUKERKEN, Norwid, the Cradle of the Aryans and Europe as a Multicultural “Principium”	27
Tadeusz SUCHARSKI, A World Apart , “The Land of the Zeks”, and... “The Dead House”	51
Paweł PANAS, Research Perspectives on A Journey to Burma By Gustaw Herling-Grudziński: An Exploration	69
Marcin CYBULSKI, The Songwriter and Literary Traditions: the Work of Adam Sikorski	77

VARIA

Radosław GRZEŚKOWIAK, A Decima of Baroque Translations of Songs about the Vanities of this World (Including “Cur mundus militat sub vana Gloria”): A Study of Sources	101
Małgorzata KRÓL, “The description of my life, my dear Urszulka, is so detailed that, I presume, its candour surpasses that of J.J. Rousseau’s confessions”: Images of Individual Lives and the Social Life of the 1840s Based on Gustaw Zieliński’s Correspondence	125
Lech DZIERŻANOWSKI, How did the Score for Luigi Dallapiccola’s Il Prigioniero Find its Way to the Library of Gustaw Herling-Grudziński?	139

OVERVIEWS – DISCUSSIONS – REVIEWS

Wojciech KUDYBA, The known and unknown Haupt	155
Grzegorz JĘDREK, Dawid Gostyński’s Being and Disintegration: Poetic Antinomies of Marcin Sendecki : The Seven Themes of Side Note Deliberations	165