
FROM THE EDITOR

“Studia Norwidiana” is the yearbook, the scholarly periodical devoted to the works and life of Cyprian Norwid. The edition has been emerging incessantly since 1983. That 34th volume of “Studia Norwidiana” constitutes the anglophone version of the original Polish edition which was published in the autumn of 2016. Due to the grant obtained by The John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, pursued within National Programme for the Development of Humanities („Internationalisation”) in the years 2016-2021 (3bH 15 0013 83/2016), next numbers of our edition subsequent issue numbers, except the standard Polish edition, will be published also in English version. We truly hope that English edition of “Studia Norwidiana” introduces norwidology, that is the crucial constituent of Polish humanities, into international humanistic circulation.
